WELCOME

We are thrilled to host another series of lunchtime concerts in the Jerwood Hall at LSO St Luke's, in partnership with BBC Radio 3. Over the past 20 years, we have welcomed an outstanding roster of soloists, duos and ensembles to this hall to perform chamber music that spans the centuries. Our 2023/24 series is no exception.

In September 2023 we dedicate a series to Richard Strauss' chamber music alongside pieces from his contemporaries, and a showcase of the Baroque era follows in November. Looking to the New Year, we delve into music from Spain, before celebrating Haydn and Mozart's exceptional writing for string quartets. Plus pianist Bertrand Chamayou invites close musical companions to perform alongside him as part of his Artist Portrait with the London Symphony Orchestra.

LSO St Luke's is busy all year around with lots to see and hear. We hope you'll join us.
