the music

LSO

‘The benefits are just the icing on the cake. Feeling like you are a ‘small cog’ that helps keep the music playing is the best bit.’

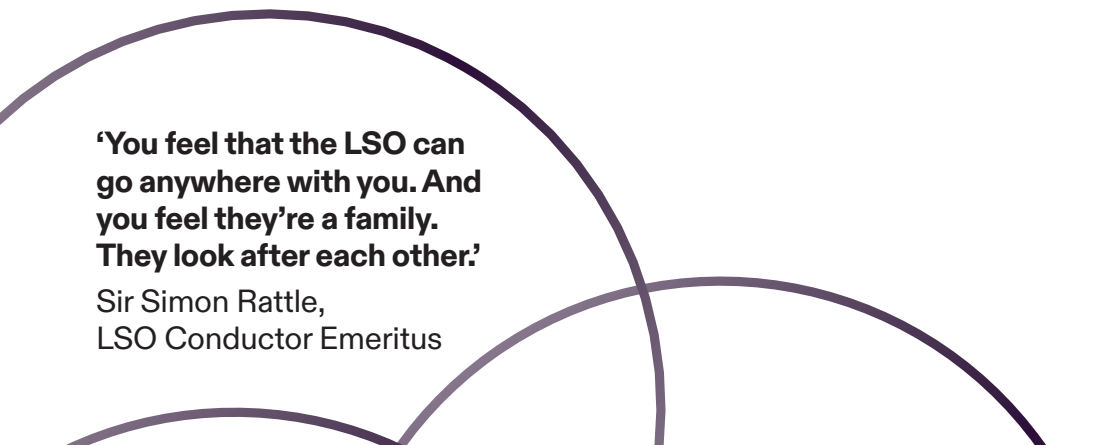

LSO Patron

LSO Patrons are partners in our work, as ambitious for our future as we are and eager to get to know the orchestra from the inside out.

Patrons share our passion for world-class classical music, and understand its power to open minds and change lives. Their committed backing means we can make exciting plans for not only months ahead, but for years to come.

Worldwide touring, projects in the community and spectacular performances at our London home, the Barbican – our Patrons’ steadfast support has a hand in everything we do.

As a Patron, you will be a highly valued member of the LSO community, with a stake in our success. That’s why we make sure there are frequent opportunities throughout the year to come together and show our appreciation, whether it be at our Season Opening, annual Patrons’ Dinner or numerous Insight and behind-the-scenes events.

‘You feel that the LSO can go anywhere with you. And you feel they’re a family. They look after each other.’

Sir Simon Rattle,
LSO Conductor Emeritus
